

For our clients who are using ClearTriage, the company has introduced nurse triage protocols for video visits. With these protocols, you'll be able to increase the consistency with which you see patients via video vs. in-person. To learn more about this new functionality and how to make it work for your practice, click here.